Mindful Movement for Families - June

Saturday, June 1 from 10 - 10:45 am at Bear Branch Nature Center:Hashawha

Ages 3+ • Program #24SU06.16

Mindfulness isn't just good for adults. It's also good for kids, and it's good for families to practice mindfulness together. Mindfulness can improve confidence, increase our ability to focus, promote relaxation, and lead to healthier lifestyles. Movement increases body awareness and builds strength and flexibility. This class gets us mindfully moving in a fun and playful way. Have you ever moved and sounded like a bee? How about an elephant? Have you ever ran across the floor like a beetle? In this class, you just might. Wear comfortable clothes you can move in, and bring water and yoga mats if you have them (mats not required). The recommended minimum age is 3, but families of all ages are welcome.

BBNC: Wilderness Survival Summer Camp

at Hashawha/Bear Branch Nature Center

10 - 12 years • Program #24CP11.23

Tuesday and Wednesday from 9am – 4pm

Thursday from 9am till Friday at 10am

Do you have what it takes?! Each day of Wilderness Survival Camp will offer a unique challenge to complete. From fire making to shelter building to orienteering to foraging, campers will learn team building skills that will assist them in surviving in the wilderness. We will learn about how indigenous peoples survived back in the Woodland Period as well as how animals are able to survive in the great outdoors each and every day. Our survival skills learned throughout the week will be put to the test when we play the Wildlife Simulation game! Campers will spend the night Thursday evening where they will be provided with dinner before heading out for an Owl Prowl. The night will wrap with a campfire before camping under the stars. Friday morning will begin with breakfast before a final farewell at 10:00am.
